3.5.8.4. Formulate and adopt its own rules to govern the conduct of its activities, which shall include guidelines for evaluating nominees, the mechanism for recognizing the awardees in public ceremonies and the creation of sub-committees;

3.5.8.5. In the evaluation of nominees, the Committee may be assisted by technical experts selected from the government and the private sectors. The Civil Service Commission shall provide secretariat service to the Committee. Nothing herein provided shall inhibit any department, office or agency from instituting its own rewards program in addition to those provided by, but not inconsistent with, these rules. The budget to cover all expenses in the implementation of this Rule shall be incorporated in the appropriations of the Civil Service Commission.

3.6. The PSHS System shall adopt an Employee Suggestions and Incentive Awards System that adheres to the following principles and mandates of the CSC:

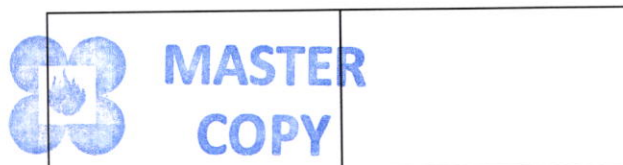

3.6.1. Every department or agency shall establish its own employee suggestions and incentive awards system.

3.6.2. The System shall be designed to encourage creativity, innovativeness, efficiency, integrity and productivity in the public service by recognizing and rewarding officials and employees, individually or in groups for their suggestions, inventions, superior accomplishments, and other personal efforts which contribute to the efficiency, economy, or other improvement in government operations, or for other extra-ordinary acts or services in the public interest.

3.6.3. The System shall henceforth be called the Program on Awards and Incentives for Service Excellence (PRAISE).

3.6.4. The PRAISE shall adhere to the principle of providing incentives and awards based on performance, innovative ideas and exemplary behavior.

3.6.5. The PRAISE shall give emphasis on the timeliness of giving award or recognition. Aside from conferment of awards during the traditional or planned awarding ceremonies, the spirit of on-the-spot grant of recognition shall be institutionalized.

- 3.6.6. The PRAISE shall provide both monetary and non-monetary awards and incentives to recognize, acknowledge and reward productive, creative, innovative and ethical behavior employees through formal and informal mode.
- 3.6.7. For this purpose, the System shall encourage the grant of non-monetary awards. Monetary awards shall be granted only when the suggestions, inventions, superior accomplishments and other personal efforts result in monetary savings which shall not exceed 20% of the savings generated.
- 3.6.8. At least 5% of the HRD Funds shall be allocated for the PRAISE and incorporated in the Agency's annual Work and Financial Plan and budget.
- 3.6.9. The PRAISE shall be institutionalized through the creation of a PRAISE Committee in all agencies of the government.

3.7. The PRAISE Committee shall preferably have the following composition:

- 3.7.1. Executive Director/Campus Director or authorized representative who will act as chairperson; ☐ Head of the financial unit or equivalent; ☐ Head of the planning unit or equivalent; ☐ Highest ranking employee in-charge of human resource management or the career service employee directly responsible for personal management, and ☐ Two (2) representatives from the career rank-and-file employees who shall serve for a period of two years and elected at large or designated by the registered union in the absence of an accredited union (one from the first level and one from the second level).
- 3.7.2. The Executive Director/Campus Director or authorized representative shall be responsible in overseeing the System's operation and the HRM Unit shall serve as the System's Secretariat.
- 3.7.3. The PRAISE Committee shall ensure that productivity, innovative ideas, suggestions and exemplary behavior can be identified, considered, managed and implemented on a continuing basis to cover employees at all levels.
- 3.7.4. The PRAISE Committee shall be responsible for the development, administration, monitoring and evaluation of the awards and incentives system of the agency. The agency may, however, employ an external
