1.0 OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 To give equal opportunities to deserving students.
- 1.2 To ensure selection of the best students to represent the school.

2.0 SCOPE

This procedure applies to the selection of students who will participate in enrichment activities (e.g. seminars, training, exchange program) and competitions.

3.0 POLICIES

- 3.1 The school reserves the right to screen and select the students who will officially represent in extra-curricular and co-curricular activities. It also reserves the right to choose the manner it sees best to screen and select its students thru its official representatives. It also reserves the right to delegate these responsibilities to its appointed school representatives.
- 3.2 Eligibility of Students to Participate
 - 3.2.1 Any student is eligible to be screened for any school activities except in the following instance where (a) he/she will represent the school in any external activities or (b) he/she will miss classes. In such cases, a student must NOT:
 - 3.2.1.1 Have a GWA lower than 2.25 in the preceding quarter (regardless of SY);
 - 3.2.1.2 Have a grade of 2.75, 3.0, 4.0 or 5.0 in any subject in the preceding quarter (regardless of SY);
 - 3.2.1.3 Have a probationary status from the preceding academic year.
 - 3.2.2 If a student has met the above criteria, but has a grade of 2.5 in any subject in the preceding quarter, his participation must be on the condition that he has filed a letter of appeal to the Campus Director thru proper channels. Further, he must go thru a conference/written correspondence (face to face conference is highly recommended) with his parents, coach, Homeroom

Adviser (HRA)/Academic and SCALE Adviser (ASA) and the teacher(s) of the subject(s) where he got a grade of 2.5.

3.2.3 The conference/written correspondence must achieve the following:

3.2.3.1 Inform the parents the consequences of the student's participation in the extra-curricular activity on the student's academic performance;

3.2.3.2 Provide the parents with options for parental and school interventions to mitigate any impact on the academic performance; and

3.2.3.3 Resolve whether to allow the student to participate or not.

3.3 The student shall arrange for make-up of missed requirements. The teacher-chaperone shall also follow-up the student to ensure that they accomplish the requirements.

3.4 The student screening and selection shall be evaluated on one or more of the following criteria:

3.4.1 Academic standing

3.4.2 Attendance record

3.4.3 Student Behavior

3.4.4 Leadership Skills

3.4.5 Financial Capacity

3.4.6 Additional criteria set by the Screening/Selection Committee.

3.5 Adverse decisions may be appealed to appropriate office.

3.6 Attendance of Students

3.6.1 On the day(s) the student will participate in the extra-curricular activity that will require him/her to miss classes; the student will be officially excused from attending his classes. Students will be marked as indicated in the accompanying attachment (e.g. SO, TO, excuse letter, etc.) on the attendance rolls, and on the summary of attendance at the end of the month, his absence from class will not be counted on the summary. The rationale behind this is that the student was not absent from school, but rather he reported for school, only that he was officially representing the school in an activity.

- 3.6.2 In the event that the activity necessitates extra time for the student to prepare, a coach can request (in writing) to the CID chief to allow the student(s) to miss classes.

3.7 Responsibilities of Students

- 3.7.1 It is the responsibility of the student to accomplish these tasks prior to missing his classes due to his participation in an extra-curricular activity:

- 3.7.1.1 Accomplish the Student Representation Form at least three (3) school days before the activity; and 3.7.1.2 Inform the class monitor of the day(s) he will be missing classes.

- 3.7.2 After the activity, it is also the responsibility of the student to follow up with his teachers his missed requirements. Towards this, the student shall accomplish missed lessons and requirements within 5 school days upon reporting to school and submit the accomplished representation form to the CID Chief for filing.

3.8 Involvement of Coaches/Chaperones

3.8.1 Considerations:

- 3.8.1.1 The school will allow the coach/chaperone and students involved in the activity to prepare after class hours during:
3.8.1.1.1 School days up to 6:00 PM (or as the time identified by each campus) provided that extern students will be fetched by an adult companion (preferably parent, guardian or relatives) for security reasons.
3.8.1.1.2 Non-school days from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM subject to prior notice from the concerned Division Chief and approval of the Campus Director.

3.8.1.2 The coach(es)/chaperone(s) may be entitled to service credit, or in the case of staff personnel compensatory leave credit, if the preparation happens after his official 8-hour schedule and if the teacher has no corresponding unit load for the activity, subject to the guidelines set in the FAD Manual (BOT Resolution 2004-03-04).

3.8.1.3 In cases where the preparation for a competition involves several teachers and only one official coach is recognized by the competition organizers, the teachers will be given a certification of team coaching by the Division Chief concerned duly noted by the official coach and the Unit Head involved in the competition. Such certification may be used by the teacher for promotion and performance evaluation purposes.

3.8.2 The Role of the Coach/Chaperone:

- 3.8.2.1 Ensure that the student is eligible to participate in extra-curricular activities as provided in the policies above;
- 3.8.2.2 Inform the adviser and subject teachers of the day(s) the student will miss classes not later than three school days before the activity;
- 3.8.2.3 Supervise the preparation of the student for the activity; and
- 3.8.2.4 Remind the student(s) to make up for missed classes and requirements.

3.8.3 Involvement of Class Advisers

- 3.8.3.1 It is the duty of the Class Advisers to:
 - 3.8.3.1.1 Monitor the involvement of their class advisees in extra-curricular activities; and
 - 3.8.3.1.2 Monitor and/or guide the student in the make-up of his/her missed lessons and requirements.

3.8.4 Involvement of Subject Teachers
