

|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     |                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| VERSION NO.2                                                           | MANUAL TITLESTUDENT SERVICES MANUAL                                                      | DOCUMENT NO.SSM 5.1 |
|  | DOCUMENT NAMEEVALUATION OF STUDENTS APPLICATION FORRESIDENCE HALL ACCOMMODATION | REVISION NO.0       |
|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     | EFFECTIVITY DATE               |
|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     | PAGE NO.1 of 2      |

1.0 OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 To facilitate a standardized evaluation of student's Residence Hall application.
- 1.2 To give timely feedback on the result of the evaluation for Residence Hall accommodation.

2.0 SCOPE

This procedure applies to the evaluation of application requirements of the students for Residence Hall accommodation.

3.0 POLICIES

- 3.1 PSHS campus shall endeavor to provide accommodation to students.
- 3.2 Priority will be given to lower grade level applicants in case of limited residence hall capacity.
- 3.3 Evaluation for Admission
  - 3.3.1 Accommodation shall be prioritized based on grade level, scholarship categorization, and distance of residence from the campus. For incoming grade 8-12 scholars, include discipline case record and compliance with residence hall rules and regulations. The campus shall reserve the right to reject applications for accommodation.
  - 3.3.2 Residence Hall Committee (Residence Hall Heads, Registered Guidance Counselor/Life Coach, Nurse), shall evaluate all applications for accommodation.
  - 3.3.3 Accommodation fees and appliance/ electrical devices fees shall be collected based on the prescribed rate by the current policy.

4.0 PROCEDURES

- 4.1 Evaluation Process for Residence Hall Applicants

|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     |                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| VERSION NO.2                                                           | MANUAL TITLESTUDENT SERVICES MANUAL                                                      | DOCUMENT NO.SSM 5.1              |
|  | DOCUMENT NAMEEVALUATION OF STUDENTS APPLICATION FORRESIDENCE HALL ACCOMMODATION | REVISION NO.0                    |
|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     | EFFECTIVITY DATEFEBRUARY 1, 2020 |
|                                                                                   |                                                                                                     | PAGE NO.2 of 2                   |

| Responsibility    | Activity                                                                                                                                                                       |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Registrar                | 1. Distributes the Residence Hall Application Forms during enrolment                                                                                                                  |
| Residence Hall Head      | 2. Collects the accomplished Residence Hall Application Forms                                                                                                                         |
| Residence Hall Committee | 3. Evaluates and recommends approval of application for Residence Hall accommodation                                                                                                  |
| SSD Chief                | 4. Endorses recommendation to the Campus Director                                                                                                                                     |
| Campus Director          | 5. Approves the recommendation                                                                                                                                                        |
| Residence Hall Head      | 6. Notifies all applicants of the status of their residence hall application                                                                                                          |
|                          | 7. Distributes residence hall contract, list of appliances/electrical devices form, and parents'/guardians' waiver forms to the qualified interns and collects the accomplished forms |
|                          | 8. Conducts orientation to parents and interns                                                                                                                                        |

5.0 LIST OF FORMS AND REPORTS

5.1 Forms

- 5.1.1 Residence Hall Application Form
- 5.1.2 Residence Hall Contract
- 5.1.3 List of Appliances/ Electrical Devices Form
- 5.1.4 Parents'/Guardian's Waiver

5.2 Reports

- 5.2.1 Approved List of Qualified Interns
- 5.2.2 Interns' Room Assignment

|                                                                                                         |                                                                                                         |                                                                                                            |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| PREPARED BY: | APPROVED BY: |  MASTERCOPY |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|