referred to the Chief Examiner. The test may be administered to him/her in the afternoon.

3.5.9.2. Students without test permit

If an examinee fails to present his/her test permit but his/her name appears in the Master List of Examinees, s/he shall be allowed to take the test. If an examinee has no test permit and whose name is not in the Master List of Examinees, the Chief Examiner shall decide whether to allow the examinee to take the test or not. The final decision shall be properly recorded in the Master List of Examinees as well as in the Chief Examiner's Report, with a notation on the reason/s for the decision made.

3.5.9.3. Stray Examinees

A stray examinee is one who opted to take the examination in a test center other than where he/she is scheduled to take. The Chief Examiner shall allow him/her to take the test. However, this shall also be properly noted in the Master List of Examinees and included in the report of the Chief Examiner.

3.5.9.4. Examinees who are sick on the day of the test

A sick examinee with a contagious illness who chooses to take the test as scheduled, shall be allowed to take the test in an isolated room, if available. The Chief Examiner may enlist the help of another staff/faculty to administer the test. In no way shall the chief examiner act as a proctor when testing is going on in other rooms.

3.5.9.5. Examinees who are unable to take the test as scheduled

Requests for special examination due to unavoidable or special circumstances shall be addressed to the Executive Director for recommendation and approval of appropriate levels of authorities.
